

Volunteers Policy

Policy Number: PN-26

Drafted by: Greg Ingham

Responsible person: Chairperson

Version 1

Approved by Board on: 19/09/2022

Scheduled review date: 30/09/2027

BACKGROUND

Community Radio Albury Wodonga Co-operative Society Ltd is the parent body that operates a community radio station under the call sign 2 REM, and it is this community radio station which relies largely on the efforts of volunteers to maintain its operations. The volunteers come from a wide range of backgrounds, and volunteer for different reasons such as:

- to contribute something to the community
- to develop professional skills
- to maintain existing skills
- to enjoy the social nature of the organisation
- to facilitate personal growth

2 REM aims to treat all of its volunteers equally with respect and trust and to provide a workplace which is safe, enjoyable and fulfilling. It will endeavour to provide a working environment which is flexible in order to allow its volunteers to gain the benefits they wish from volunteering.

Conversely, 2 REM expects its volunteers to act professionally and in good faith towards the radio station at all times and that they hold the interests of the radio station and its community in equal regard to their own, thus ensuring positive outcomes for themselves, the radio station and the community we serve.

PURPOSE

This document sets out 2 REM's Policy on the responsible management of the volunteers engaged at 2 REM.

The purpose of this policy is to provide a clear statement about the roles and responsibilities of the volunteers and the organisation.

1. PRINCIPLES OF VOLUNTEERING

- a) Volunteering benefits the community and the volunteer.
- b) Volunteering is always a matter of choice.
- c) Volunteering is an activity that is unpaid and not undertaken for the receipt of salary, pension, government allowance or honorarium.
- d) Volunteering is a legitimate way in which citizens can participate in the activities of their community.

- e) Volunteering is a vehicle for individuals or groups to address human, environmental and social needs.
- f) Volunteering is an activity performed in the not for profit sector only.
- g) Volunteers do not replace paid workers nor constitute a threat to the job security of paid workers.
- h) Volunteering respects the rights, dignity and culture of others.
- i) Volunteering promotes human rights and equality.

2. THE RIGHTS OF VOLUNTEERS AT 2 REM

You have the right to:

- a) be treated as a co-worker
- b) suitable assignments with consideration for personal preference, temperament, abilities, education, training and employment
- c) know as much about the organisation as possible, its policies, people and programs
- d) expect clear and open communication from management and staff at all times
- e) be given appropriate orientation, introduction and provision of information about new developments
- f) sound guidance and direction in the workplace
- g) advance notice (where possible) of changes which may affect your work (such as programming changes)
- h) undertake your volunteer activity without interruption or interference from management, staff or other volunteers
- i) a place of work complying with statutory requirements in regard to equal employment, anti-discrimination legislation, the Commonwealth Racial Discrimination Act 1975 and occupational health and safety standards
- j) be heard, able to feel free to make suggestions and to be given respect for your honest opinion
- k) appropriate insurance cover such as volunteer and public liability insurance
- l) appropriate grievance procedures in the event of a dispute and, if necessary, mediation or arbitration to assist with resolving the dispute
- m) receive written notification for suspension/release of services
- n) have services appropriately assessed and effectively recognised
- o) have training provided that will enable participation at the radio station at a variety of levels

3. THE RESPONSIBILITIES OF VOLUNTEERS AT 2 REM

As a volunteer you have the responsibility to:

- a) have a professional attitude towards your voluntary work
- b) be prompt, reliable and productive with regard to commitments and agreements made with 2 REM and to notify the appropriate person if unable to meet those commitments
- c) accept and abide by station rules

- d) understand and adhere to the community radio Codes of Practice and maintain familiarity with broadcast laws such as defamation law and the Broadcast Services Act 1992
- e) not to represent 2 REM publicly or commercially unless prior arrangement has been made
- f) not to bring into disrepute the operations, management, staff or other volunteers of 2 REM
- g) treat technical equipment with due care respect and to notify the radio station co-ordinator or technical staff of faults and problems
- h) undertake to complete a minimum of the basic level of training offered at the station if you are intending to work in any area of programming
- i) only use station resources and equipment in carrying out work for 2 REM and not for private purposes
- j) ensure that the station has your current contact details
- k) respect the racial and religious backgrounds and the sexual preferences of your fellow volunteer workers and work to ensure that 2 REM is safe work place for everyone
- l) contribute to the achievement of a safe, tolerant and equitable working environment by avoiding, and assisting in preventing, behaviour which is discriminatory

4. WHAT ARE THE RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF 2 REM?

4.1 2 REM has the right to:

- a) expect your co-operation in working to uphold and maintain the organisation's mission statement, the station charter and program policies
- b) expect you to be familiar with the laws relating to broadcasting, 2 REM policies and procedures
- c) expect you to be prompt, reliable and productive with regard to commitments and agreements made with 2 REM
- d) have confidential information respected
- e) make a decision, in consultation with you, as to where your services and skills would best be utilised
- f) make decisions which may affect your work
- g) make programming decisions in accordance with programming policies and procedures
- h) develop, implement and enforce rules, policies and procedures for all aspects of radio station operation
- i) develop and maintain all property and residence of the organisation
- j) provide you with feedback to enhance your programming and broadcasting development.
- k) expect clear and open communication from you at all times
- l) release you in accordance with 2 REM policies and procedures due to contravention of radio station and or Co-operative rules

4.2 2 REM has the responsibility to:

- a) provide you with a work environment which embraces the principles of equity and access
- b) value the importance of your role within the organisation
- c) place you in an appropriate, suitable position and environment
- d) give you appropriate tasks in accordance with your strengths, abilities, training and experience
- e) provide you with training so that you can expand your expertise and abilities
- f) acknowledge your contribution to the radio station and provide you with the appropriate recognition and/or rewards
- g) ensure the staff has the appropriate skills required to work with you
- h) provide adequate formal and informal channels for constructive feedback
- i) provide you with information regarding any activities or changes at the radio station or the Co-operative which may affect your work
- j) consult with you (where possible and practicable) on issues that may affect your work
- k) ensure that all radio station democratic processes are adhered to and that you are consulted in major decision-making processes
- l) ensure that you are aware of radio station and the Co-operative's democratic processes and are encouraged to participate in them

AUTHORISATION

G J Ingham
Secretary